IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR DOG OWNERS

All Dogs six months and over must be registered and microchipped in accordance with the Dog Control Act 2000.

Microchipping

Under the Dog Control Act 2000 s.15A(1)- The owner of a dog that is over 6 months of age must ensure that the dog is implanted in an approved manner with an approved microchip.

- Exemptions from Microchipping – Under the Dog Control Act 2000 s.15A92)(a)&(b) the following exemptions apply:-
  - (a) a dog in respect of which a veterinary surgeon has issued a certificate stating that to implant the dog with a microchip may adversely affect the health and welfare of the dog; or
  - (b) a type, class or breed of dog that the Minister, by order, declares is not required to be implanted with a microchip i.e. Working Dogs (see Working Dog Interpretation below)

- Working Dog Interpretation – Under the Dog Control Act 2000 s.3, working dog means a dog used principally for -
  - (a) droving or tending livestock; or
  - (b) detecting illegal substances; or
  - (c) searching, tracking or rescuing; or
  - (d) working with police officers.

- Evidence Required To Prove Working Dog Status
  - (a) Primary Producer
    - ABN number of business registration from the Australian Tax Office identifying that the business is registered as a Primary Producer and showing that it is in the dog owner's name; or
    - A Statutory Declaration from the owner stating that the dog is a working dog.
  - (b) Employee of a Primary Producer
    - A letter from the business owner (on their business letterhead and ABN) confirming that the person is an employee of the business, that the business is registered as a Primary Producer and that the employee is required to use a dog for the purposes of their duties; or
    - A Statutory Declaration from the owner stating that the dog is a working dog.
